IT'S TIME FOR COLLEGE NIGHT AT NINO'S

All CTS college and graduate students are invited to join Pastor Jim for dinner at:

NINO'S
2817 W. Dallas St
Thursday, December 27
7:00 p.m.

To join the fun, email Pastor Jim at jrgiannan@gmail.com or call the office to tell them you're planning to come.

COUNCIL COMMENTARY

The CTS Church Council met November 8, 2018. Chandler Wilhelm opened the meeting with a Devotional that provides reflections on Finding God's Purpose in Adversity. It includes commentary based on scripture from James, and includes thoughts expressed by Mark Twain and Charles C. Black (Chaplain of the United States Senate).

Mary Puccini, Garage Sale Co-Leader included a report to Council on exciting efforts of the Garage Sale Committee. The sale, benefiting the Homeless Ministry, will take place on Saturday, March 30, 2019.

Director of Music John Kruger provided a written report which is incorporated into the Minutes Book in the Narthex. Please note that the Midweek Advent Services commence December 5, looking at three "songs" from Luke.

Financial Secretary Samantha Clark provided the Monthly Report.

Youth and Family Director J.T. advised that "Music Time with John" is now part of the Sunday School Experience each week. J.T. also announced that packing of Seafarers Boxes will take place Sunday December 9.

Pastor Jim let us know that he had an excellent continuing education experience studying spirituality in ancient civilizations in Peru. Pastor Jim has been working with John Kruger and Lori Wood on the upcoming Advent Services.

Susan Collins chaired the Budget Meeting portion of the evening's business. A copy of the working draft (before changes) is included in the Minutes Binder.

Please plan to attend the Annual Congregational Meeting, December 2, commencing at 9:30 a.m. The purpose of the Meeting is to review the activities of the past year and to review and approve the 2019 Budget.

The minutes binder, including devotional, financial report and budget draft is in the Narthex.

Please continue to keep Church Council in your prayers.

Ken Smith,
Council Secretary

STEWARDSHIP: LIVE COURAGEOUSLY

What does it mean to live courageously?

When we are living courageously, stewardship calls us to do good, be generous, and be ready to share so that we might "take hold of the life that is really life" (1 Timothy 6:18-19).

But living as Timothy suggests in the middle of our world today takes great courage.

If we limit our theology of stewardship merely to how we invest our money and possessions, then we have missed the message. God has chosen to work through us to transform this world.

Stewardship is not merely a church word associated with fundraising, pledging and annual budgets.

Stewardship leads us to cling to God's promise for the future, forcing us to live differently.

When living courageously, we can risk the safety and comfort of the status quo for the chance to live into the role that God calls us to play – to do good, be generous and be ready to share.

Live courageously!

2019 FLOWER CHART

YOUTH AND FAMILY NEWS

Advent Family Devotionals

This year, CTS partnered with Illustrated Children's Ministry to provide weekly family activities to make the season of Advent more meaningful. We also hope it's a tool you can use to spend more time together and intentionally starting spiritual conversations with each other. If you haven't gotten a copy of the Advent materials yet, you can pick up a folder on the table just outside the far right entrance to the Sanctuary. Don't forget to also pick up a jar, which will help you during week 4!

Advent Kids Corner

Do you attend the 11:00 a.m. service? Do you have squirmy, distracted children sitting next to you? I DO! Well, during the season of Advent (December 2, 9, 16, and 23), CTS Youth and Family Ministry will be hosting the Advent Kids Corner. We are taking over the back left-side corner underneath the stained glass where we will have a different Advent-themed banner each week for the kids to color. Crayons, markers, colored-pencils and adult supervision will be provided. After the Children's Message, send your kids to the corner and enjoy the service. They will still be in the room, and still be able to hear and see everything that happens so they can continue to learn what it means to be part of our community, and of course you can retrieve them any time.

KIDS WHO LOVE PIZZA!

A rare ALL-AGES KWLP is coming up on December 2, 2018 when we go see Wreck-it Ralph 2: Ralph Breaks The Internet! I love the first Wreck It Ralph movie so much, and I can't wait to see the next one. Sunday, December 2nd after church we will grab some Fuzzy's Pizza on Westheimer and plan to make the next available showing at Cinemark Memorial City. Showtime is TBA as soon as they are released, and you should get your tickets as soon as you can after that.

It's a KWLP Double Feature Month

because Aquaman comes out on Friday, December 21! This movie is going to be so bad that it's good, and because of it, we're going to try something we NEVER do for Kids Who Love Pizza. We are going to see it on OPENING NIGHT! For this one we're going out to Katy for our west-side folks and we will get our pizza at Old Chicago Pizza and Taproom before heading over to Cinemark Katy for the show. Showtime for this movie is TBA, as well, but I imagine tickets will sell out quickly for opening night, so be on your toes!

Seafarer Boxes

On December 9th, our children's Sunday School classes will be filling and wrapping shoeboxes full of gifts and supplies to be donated to the Seafarers Center at the Port of Houston. The congregation has been generous in their giving to this event so far, but if you'd still like to donate some supplies, here is a list of new, unused things that we'd like to include in the boxes:

Band Aids (fabric)	Soap
Baseball Caps	Shampoo
2019 Calendar	Toothbrush
Comb	Toothpaste
Dental Floss	Gum & Hard Candy
Disposable Razors	Key Chains
Flashlight w/Batteries	Pocket Size Notebooks
Kleenex	Mechanical Pencils
Lip Balm	Pens
Lotion	Playing Cards
Nail Clippers	Popcorn
Gold Bond Cream	Socks
Gold Bond Powder	Sudoku
Hot Chocolate	Texas Souvenirs
Needle & Thread	T-Shirts
Q-Tips	USB Flash Drives
Shaving Cream	Word Searches

WOMEN'S MINISTRY SERVICE PROJECT

Our service project is to provide PJ's for the precious seniors at Brookdale!

We ask our congregation to consider this opportunity to donate toward this effort. Make checks out to CTS. Donation box is in the Narthex!

On December 13th a group of us will host a holiday party at Brookdale along with a "zany" fashion show to bring some joy to these residents.

Please support us and thank you in advance!

TUESDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY – ISAIAH

The Isaiah Bible Study continues on Dec 11th. We've finally reached Second Isaiah (Chapters 40-55) written around 540 B.C.E while Israel was in exile in Babylon. Interspersed in Second Isaiah are four passages which refer to a special character identified as "the servant of the Lord": Isaiah 42:1-9, 49:1-7, 50:4-9 and 52:13-53:12. This servant appears to be Israel but also has a mission to Israel. Of course, we are apt to interpret this servant as a prelude to Jesus. Here is an excerpt from the last "servant" poem in Isaiah 52:13-53:12. What do you think?

- 52:13 See, my servant shall prosper;
he shall be exalted and lifted up,
and shall be very high.
- 52:14 Just as there were many who were astonished at him— marred was his appearance,
beyond human semblance,
and his form beyond that of mortals—
- 15 so he shall startle many nations;
kings shall shut their mouths because of
him;
for that which had not been told them they shall see, and that which they had not heard
they shall contemplate.
- 53:10 Yet it was the will of the Lord to crush him with pain.
When you make his life an offering for sin,
he shall see his offspring, and shall prolong his days; through him the will of the Lord shall prosper.
- 11 Out of his anguish he shall see light;
he shall find satisfaction through his knowledge.
The righteous one, my servant, shall make
many righteous,
and he shall bear their iniquities.
- 12 Therefore I will allot him a portion with the great,
and he shall divide the spoil with the strong;
because he poured out himself to death,
and was numbered with the transgressors;
yet he bore the sin of many,
and made intercession for the transgressors.

You are most welcome to join our Tuesday night group. We meet from 7:00 pm to around 8:15 pm in the CTS conference room.

CTS LIBRARY

We have many wonderful books in our CTS Library: Christian fiction, biographies, biblical, to name a few. You may find something that interests you. Come browse and check it out!

Recent additions are:

- 270.2 Jesus Wars by Philip Jenkins: How 4 patriarchs, 3 queens & 2 emperors decided what Christians would believe for the next 1,500 years.
- 280 Christianity After Religion: The end of church and the birth of a new spiritual awakening.
- 270 Discovering God: The origins of the great religions and the evolution of belief.

GARAGE SALE NEWS!

The CTS Garage Sale for 2019 will be on Saturday, March 30th. The GS Committee has already met to decide how we can improve the sale and our profits to benefit Homeless Ministry. It was news to me that it takes $8,000-$10,000 a year to cover food and women's toiletries and special holiday packages for the hundreds of people served. The Garage Sale takes in between two to four thousand dollars a year. The rest of the money comes from donations from our members. So, I'd like to thank all those who have helped the Homeless Ministry by donating your time, your goods and your money over the years.

Looking forward, the committee would like to concentrate our efforts on advertising and volunteer help. It amazes all of us that our congregation can fill up the Fellowship Hall with donated goods year after year. We have enough items for sale; we need more buyers. We all agreed that turnout was "light" this year. So, this coming year our co-chair, Richard Clark, will be heading up outreach through social media. We also will be using signs, big and little, to attract the attention of the drivers on and around Wilcrest.

In the next update, I'll make a shameless plea for volunteer help.

Have a Merry Christmas and remember the CTS Garage Sale as you reorganize after the holidays.

Mary Puccini, Garage Sale Co-chair

WOMEN'S RETREAT

Retreat was a great success with tons of fellowship, a dynamic program presented by Jan Bethancourt (an artist and author), a bonfire and sing-a-long in the gorgeous natural tree chapel, communion service in the woods, welcoming together a beautiful sunrise and on and on! These retreats have become such an important part of what we do and we look forward planning these great opportunities to learn about God and his relationship with us! We invite ALL women of CTS to consider attending future retreats. Your attendance would be a blessing for you and the Women's Ministry Team!

WORSHIP AND MUSIC

This year, we have a few extra days between Thanksgiving and the beginning of Advent. Of course, I feel like I have extra time, which of course I don't. Fortunately, Easter is very late next year, so I actually will have extra planning time after the first of the year. What left me thinking I had all kinds of time was that Thanksgiving fell very early this year, which resulted in this being a rare year that the last Sunday of the church year falls after Thanksgiving.

Our first midweek Advent services will be December 5. Our theme this year is looking at some of the songs in Luke. To be exact, there are four in the Christmas season: the song of Mary, also known as the Magnificat; the song of Zechariah (after the birth of John the Baptist), also known as the Benedicite; the song of the Angels, also known as the Gloria in excelsis; and finally, the song of Simeon (upon seeing the baby Jesus), also known as the nunc dimittis. The first three will be the core material for the Wednesday services, and we will sing the fourth on December 30.

We will be slightly out of order, but that apparent disorder will put the Magnificat in its proper place in relation to the Sunday readings. The first will be "Hark! The Herald Angels Sing" (Luke 2:14, ELW #270) on December 5. The other candidate is "All Glory Be to God on High" (ELW #410), which will also appear in the service. This will be combined with the women's luncheon at noon, along with some surprise guests. On December 12, the featured song will be "Blessed Be the God of Israel" (Luke 1:68-79, ELW #250), and the last, on December 19, will be "My Soul Proclaims Your Greatness" (Luke 1:46-55, ELW #251).

December 16 marks the premiere of my cantata "Bwana Anakuja" (Jesus, He Is Coming) at both services. The first service will be a slightly downscale version, and I will add the Sunday school at the late service. I don't quite have the forces to do a singing Christmas tree or a large scale choral work, but we do have the troops to perform very nice things during Advent and Lent.

Our Christmas Eve services will be at 5:00 and 7:30 p.m. As usual, we will be doing lessons and carols; during the busyness of Christmas, it is a good time to hear the familiar story, sing the familiar songs, and remember the reason for the season.

John Krueger
Director of Music
